

September Open-Ended Question
Math for Standards
6 points

Name _____
Date _____

Solve the following problem then explain what you did and why you did it. In other words, provide an explanation for your solution.

A bat ate a total of 1125 dragon flies on five consecutive nights. Each night she ate 35 more than on the night before. How many did she eat each night?